THE MOMENT IS ONLY TEMPORAR

A group of approximately 18 young people, mostly teenagers, are posed in a field of fallen autumn leaves. They are arranged in three rows: a back row standing, a middle row kneeling, and a front row sitting. The individuals are dressed in 1970s-style clothing, including patterned shirts, overalls, and various t-shirts. The background features large trees with dense, yellow and orange foliage under a clear blue sky.

Homecoming week was filled with many events leading up to the big night, some of the events were, Hat Day, Dork Day, Orange and White Day, Kill 'Em Day, a Bonfire and a Parade.

During the parade, Jeff Trimble was crowned Homecoming King and juniors took first place in the float contest.

At halftime of the game, Laurie Swanson was crowned queen by captains Mark Zeller, Mark Johnson, and Todd Bollman.

Even though Deary defeated Troy that night, many enjoyed the dance following the game.

BAND, CHORUS, DRAMA. . . .COMBINE

Brigadoon, a broadway musical was the first production of its sort ever to be presented at Troy High School. Students spent many hours preparing for the productions. Drama also presented three plays, Happily Ever After, The Bride Comes to Yellow Sky and Reunion at Callow Hills. The Chorus also presented the Spring Concert, and the Christmas Concert and achieved a perfect rating at Festival. The band played at most home games and held a dance in the winter.

AND POPULAR

Younglife was popular this year involving many T. H. S. students even though it was not a high school activity. During the year, Younglife meetings were held every week at students homes. Singing, talking, skits and a lot of fun summed up each meeting. Younglife leaders devoted many hours getting to know the students and attending high school activities. In whole, younglife was very much a part of high school life.
